The seal of the United States Congress is a circular emblem. It features a blue outer ring with the words "UNITED STATES" at the top and "CONGRESS" at the bottom in white capital letters, separated by white stars. The center of the seal depicts an eagle with its wings spread, perched on a shield with vertical red and white stripes and a blue chief. The eagle holds an olive branch in its right talon and a bundle of arrows in its left. Above the eagle's head is a semi-circle of thirteen white stars.
